

Online Quiz Chapter 12

HI 103

Question 1

Which of the following was accomplished by medieval Christian monasteries?

- They launched an early "feminist" movement.
- They were under the rule of the princeps.
- They played a major military role for their religion.
- They enforced the tenets of the Scriptures, often by force.
- They served as centers of learning.

Question 2

The incursions of the Scandinavian Vikings into other parts of Europe

- led to Scandinavian control of Greece.
- were successful because their ships had a shallow draft, allowing them to sail far up rivers.
- were defeated at the Battle of Lechfeld.
- had little impact on the history of England and France.
- were the most threatening of the fifteenth century invaders to the peace of Europe.

Question 3

The piece of land that provided the feudal vassal's economic support was the

- tallage.
- fief.
- homage.
- vassalage.
- right.

Question 4

Which of the following revolutionized warfare in the early Middle Ages?

- the stirrup
- gunpowder
- the Black Death
- the longbow
- the emergence of a money economy

Question 5

The victor at the Battle of Hastings was

- William of Normandy.
- Edward the Confessor.
- Harold Godwinson.
- Harald Hardrada.
- Henry II.

Question 6

France's first parliament, begun under Philip IV, was the Chambre des Comptes.
Reichstagen.
Parlement.
Diet of Paris.
Estates-General.

Question 7

The pope who gave his blessing and authorized the First Crusade was Gregory the Great.
Innocent III.
Pius X
Gregory VII.
Urban II.

Question 8

The basis of feudalism in Europe was the recognition of clergy as superior in status than a secular authority.
the sacred oath of loyalty.
a means for apportioning land allocations among nobility without sons a contract sworn between a lord and his vassal.
one of the sacraments in the Catholic church.

Question 9

What distinction was signified by the Magna Carta?
Complete autonomy of the Privy Council.
Empowerment of a representative parliament.
An abiding peace with France and the descendants of Eleanor of Aquitaine
Formal recognition of the mutual rights and obligations between the king and his vassals.
England became a constitutional monarchy.

Question 10

The first university was developed in what city?
Paris
Cambridge
Cordoba
Bologna
Florence